Sino Surrender Island

Message Dropped To Commander By Pilot From Skies—No Bombs Fall in Interval.

By JAMES A. WELLS
Associated Press Staff Writer

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—Japan's unyielding General Chiang Kai-Shek today to surrender. A message was dropped to him by Japanese airmen making their first flight over Nanking since the government announced its transfer from the capital to Chungking, about 1,000 miles farther inland.

No bombs were dropped—only the message of surrender. It was released from a plane flown by Lieutenant Mochi Mochi Naga, one of Japan's ace pilots.

Japanese reported capture of Wush, one of the last strongholds of China's Nanking defense.

Japanese land and air forces began a concerted drive against the Chinese, on a line north from Wush to Kiangnan, on the Yangtze river.

The weather after a week of rain. Sino forces were being driven back by the line west of Shanghai, and the important communication and supply line, on the Yangtze, was cut.

Japanese declared the drive would bring their troops to the east of Nanking, China's evacuated capital, before the end of the month.

Japanese Warn French Zones

Japanese threat to seize the Chinese island of Hainan, and dominate from there all of France's Asiatic colonies unless shipments of arms to China through French Indo-China cease immediately, has reportedly sent the pick of France's war fleet steaming under forced draft to the Gulf of Tonkin.

Map shows the island of Hainan, part of China's Kwangtung province, and its strategic position in relation to French Indo-China and to British and American colonies in the Far East. Japanese occupation of Hainan could become a menace to all three powers with interests in the Far East.

Fighting Planes Sent By Russia To Assist China

More Than 50 Flown Over In Past Two Weeks, Shanghai Hears—Pilots Are Being Trained

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—It was learned authoritatively today that more than 50 Soviet-made fighting planes have been flown into China from Russia in the past two weeks.

The planes were reported based at Lanchow, capital of Kansu province, about 1,000 miles in the interior. They have already been turned over to the Chinese authorities.

Great significance was attached to the arrival of the planes, which coincided with a reported decision of Russia to abandon further material support of the Spanish government in Spain's civil war and to use the Trans-Siberian railroad exclusively for the transportation of military supplies.

Chinese pilots have been undergoing special training at Urumchi in Sinkiang province and at Lanchow, to learn to handle the new aircraft which are both pursuit and bomber types.

Thousands at Coast Await in Gasoline Price

18 CENTS IS FAIR PRICE, SAYS REPORT

Night and Day Sessions of Legislature at Victoria Starting Today

VICTORIA, Nov. 21.—British Columbia rocked a weather eye at today's resumed legislature and speculated on government implementation of a tax commutation report which recommended drastic reductions in consumption in gasoline and coal prices.

Principally concerned were the province's 100,000 odd car drivers who hoped for action on recommended gasoline to be reduced four cents immediately with an eventual price of 16 cents a gallon. Last year the provincial treasury collected some $700,000 from motorists who paid an average of 27 cents a gallon.

WIT DAY AND NIGHT

While legislators prepared for day and night sessions starting today in an effort to bring the 19th session to a close before Christmas, the government remained silent on any contemplated action on the commutation report.

Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald, of the British Columbia Appeal Court, submitted his findings of the coal petroleum industries to the house Friday.

Appointed in November, 1934, as a coal-mining commission, the court judge said his investigations showed the oil company structure was too heavy.

NOT ON QUALITY

With no substantial difference in quality of different brands of gasoline sold he reported "extravagant" advertising of the various oil companies was not based on any quality difference.

To cut down this overhead, which he said was passed on to the consumer, he advocated reduction in the number of service stations throughout the province and distribution independently of the oil companies.

In addition the report declared heavy fuel oil was sold below cost to unfair competition, to dominate mined coal and the loss added to gasoline production cost.

AT 18 CENTS

With the recommended changes the commission believed gasoline should sell at not more than 18 cents a gallon, and even with out the price should not exceed 18 cents including government tax, and the estimated 10-cent profit.

(The report also pay a seven-cent provincial tax, plus the tax and eight per cent on the total of about 14.6 cents per gallon.)

The commission objected to "price setting from time to time by Imperial Oil Company and followed by the other oil companies which in effect created a monopoly."

Price recommendations were based on gasoline retail in Vancouver, with establishment of price to other provincial points and by adding freightage only.

CUT COAL COSTS

With regard to the coal industry the commission urged an immediate reduction in Vancouver and Victoria to 16 to 18 per cent short ton instead of the 27.5 quoted now during months, central distribution depots, back delivery and added use of modern coal handling appliances should reduce the price to 16 per cent.

GRITS OPPOSE PROPOSAL FOR UNITY COUNCIL man group that simply upon the dictate of an enforced party. Liberal members agreed in pointing out the defects of the Peoples League proposal.

One of the pivotal points in Mr. Gray's offer of cooperation, they contended, was the retention of complete constituency autonomy, with each political association acting in conjunction with their respective party leaders. This basic premise was flouted by the Peoples League offer.

In branding the central council proposal as unsatisfactory, the Alberta Liberal executive emphasized that this decision did not preclude action along co-operative lines, provided some reasonable and satisfactory method of securing such action could be devised.

WELFARE OF ALBERTA

In reaffirming its belief in united action, the Liberal executive declared that such co-operation should be decided by the welfare of Alberta as a whole to the end of securing a more efficient government. Official statement released Saturday night by the Liberal executive summarized the attitude of the party to the offer to form a community council reads as follows:

"Dear Mr. McEachern: The communications received from November 18, 1937, has been received by the executive of the Alberta Liberal Association in meeting today. The following two resolutions were passed unanimously at the meeting and forthwith the attitude of the Alberta Liberal party to the question of co-operation is:

"1.—The executive of the Alberta Liberal Association in meeting today, in the opinion of the Alberta Liberal executive, as outlined from time to time by the Alberta Liberal leader, Mr. E. Gray, to establish a more efficient government, that co-operation of political parties in which each retains its identity under its own leadership, is the most efficient manner of securing such united action.

ON TO GENEVA

From Brussels, the Canadian view of whether neutral nations will do anything to protect China, punish Japan, or even bring peace in the Orient, goes to Geneva. Mr. Delors, French minister of foreign affairs, is expected to be deputed. He said, with obvious truthfulness, "Conciliation has collapsed." He also told them if the League decided to go to Geneva, the decision will have to be unanimous.

With Italy a member of the League, it is a foregone conclusion that there can be no unanimous decision at the League of Nations to or to penalize Japan. There will be unanimity on a proposal to help arrange peace, that depends on what the League will do, from has won the war, and its ally will undoubtedly be in it demanding that it be allowed to destroy its victim. With Italy, the League, it is from the rape of Abyssinia, and trusting to an alliance of the Fascist states to re-establish the right of might in the League.

A miracle may happen, but Geneva has not been doing any miracle-working of late. By the law of probabilities, the most that can be expected is that the League will offer to mediate, in the light of what a Japanese spokesman has called the "realities of the situation."

ONE PLACE TO GET REVENUE

On a total turn-over of $7,660,708, the Liquor Control Board of the province last year made a net profit of $1,165,652. License fees and other sources of revenue was expected, brought in $1,737,261. A total net gain of $2,333,019, on the sale of goods valued $4,956,804; a profit of more than 47 per cent.

The liquor sales branch has developed into one of the biggest of the big business institutions in the province, and by all odds the most profitable. If the total liquor sales concern the stock would be selling at $900 for a hundred dollar share, and would be worth the money.
The stable business flourishing in bad times and good, showing a substantially growing trade, and evidently destined to enjoy a larger proportion and bring in larger profits as the years pass.

The city council, had pressed for money and scanning the horizon for new sources of income, might urge the liquor profits tax on the premises in which it carries on this highly profitable line of business in Edmonton.
Former council members have been successful in their success. But that is no reason why the present council should not bring the matter to attention and hope for a better outcome. The Government can have felt very proud of the fact that it compelled the taxpayers of the city and province to pay for the liquor profits tax on the premises in which it carried on this very lucrative business.

VISCOUNT CECIL

The stature of Viscount Cecil as a statesman and political prophet can be gauged by the fact that he preserved his reputation even though he framed the League of Nations.
Paris in 1919 was the graveyard of celebrities. Lloyd George was there and Versailles as England's man of destiny, he returned to the embittered apostle of a discredited creed. Even Clemenceau's resolute compromises with his conscience could not save the odium inflicted upon him by his performance at the peace deliberations. And President Wilson, of gracious presence, never could escape the stigma of having been killed the ideal he so nobly cherished for the good of man.

Two men whose prestige grew under the challenge of war passed away. Viscount Cecil were General Smuts and Viscount Cecil. Both sought to avenge unrest, redress manifest injustices and erect a new world order upon the shifting sands of politics—but upon the enduring mandates of the human conscience. They were peace-builders, rather than treaty-makers.

And now Viscount Cecil, rich in years and richer in honors, has been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. He amply deserves it. He was granted vision by the carnage of the war which given a strength, given a conviction that he should bind to his together nations, and sundered; transforming himself from a mere member of a war cabinet into a gallant peace crusader.

a contest between Wembley and the rest of Canada, with the rest of Canada nowhere in the winter when the award came to be made out. On Wednesday came news that Fred Wembley had beaten Herman Treloar in the championship for the first place among spring wheel exhibitors. But on Friday it transpired that James Sebastian of Wembley had noised the other two exhibitors, and the laurels as wheel champion of the Dominion.

Explanation is offered that Paverly and Treloar showed wheel profound from aristocratic seed, fully registered and certified; while Sebastian sent along a sample grown from unregistered parentage and with no documentary proof of pedigree. Sebastian's seed, it is said, is man may infer that Wembley soil is soundly democratic, doesn't pay much attention to official certification of seed. Sebastian's seed, from any kind of good seed, with or without authenticated pedigree.

Just to clinch Wembley's claim to victory, the contest was a draw between the red spring wheel class shows the names of four Wembley men, two of them in the first two places, with nine more, incidentally, from other points in this province. Wembley, one gathers, is a town completely surrounded by prize-wheat farmers.

It would simplify matters if the Royal Winter Fair were moved to Wembley. Then the local farmers could fight out the question of wheat supremacy with a minimum of trouble and expense, while growers in other provinces could save money and disappointment by staying out of the League of Nations.

Wembley, papers of the world peace note, is located in the Grande Prairie district of the province of Alberta.

The North West Council is expected to make a demand for the return of the government.
The new school law has been passed by the North West Council.

At a public meeting in Battleford the commissioners of the police were severely criticized for the handling of contractors for police supplies.
It is claimed that contractors from Regina and Saskatoon were favored. This suspicion and recrimination does no one any good. It is time that a definite statement explaining the situation was made by the proper authorities.

coal shortage. The coal shortage is a serious one. Kaiser Wilhelm urged them to use their influence for peace.

Sale of $1,850,000 worth of Alberta 30-year 4 per cent bonds was announced by Hon. R. G.
Reid, provincial treasurer. The price obtained is the best since the first provincial issue was made in 1908. The rate at the price, $1,233, works out at 4.49 per cent.

The city council, had pressed for money
and scanning the horizon for new sources of income, might urge the liquor profits tax
on the premises in which it carries on this highly profitable line of business in Edmonton.
Former council members have been successful in their success. But that is no reason why the present council should not bring the matter to attention
and hope for a better outcome. The Government can have felt very proud of the fact that it compelled the taxpayers of the city
and province to pay for the liquor profits tax
on the premises in which it carried on this very lucrative business.

LOVE

Tokyo newspapers insist that Japan loves China. The Japanese are also beginning to speak of North China as a new Man-chukuo and of the possible creation of an independent state in Inner Mongolia. The fact that the love is unrequited apparently does not worry the Japanese, who may find their consolation in the acquisition of new territory.—Mon-

THE ONLY CURE

There is considerable criticism of the slow automobile driver, but there is this to be said for him, he never kills anybody. It wasn't slow driving that caused the tragedy that befell out of the

It was outrageously fast driving, the only adequate punishment for which is a jail term

BAD BUSINESS

It appears now that the annexation of Ethiopia cost Italy something in excess of $20,000,000.
The total trade of Ethiopia is worth about $10,000,000 a year.
If Italy hopes for the money required to finance the Ethiopian conquest, the annual revenue from all Ethiopia should control every cent of it, would only meet two-thirds of the interest charge.

The great conqueror, the invincible Duce, the little and the big, have been guilty of a business deal that would have the worst nigger in the stock market.

OPTIMISM
The spirit of optimism goes a long way with all of us. To have confidence in the future of the city of your residence, of your Province, and of the nation of vital importance. There is no room for the joy-killers in business or public life. A nation of pessimists cannot succeed in anything. This is the time to look forward to only what we make and the spirit of optimism soon reflected in all industry when it dominates our daily life.—Guelph Mercury.

HISTORICAL RECORDS

An announcement of unusual interest to Canadians was contained in a news dispatch the other day to the effect that the richest records of Canadian historical material are not found in the Dominion but in the vaults of the Hudson's Bay House in London. There are found in these collections tons of unpublished accounts of "the Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's Bay reaching back to 1670, when King Charles II granted the charter." It is now announced that the first time that historical records are to be made available to the public.—Burlington Expositor.

MEDIAEVAL "PROGRESS"

An interesting sidelight on the state of modern civilization is provided in a current bulletin published by a building trades employers association.

Discussing structural design for large city buildings, this bulletin remarks that architects hereof must take into account the fact that their buildings will be subjected to airplane bombings. New buildings must have stronger foundations—both as a defense against the bombing and as a defense against the fact that to serve as mounts for anti-aircraft guns in case of need.

The association is undoubtedly correct in saying that this is a factor to be considered in the future; but what a commentary on the way in which modern civilization has progressed! The fact that historical records are to be back in the middle ages for defense as well as for shelter. It is a profoundly depressing thought.—Victoria Times.

PIE PLATES AND FREEDOM

An invention in Indiana has invented a new sort of pie plate, and the New York Sun is very mad at it. The new invention is a pie plate
"with knobs on the flange," arranged at equal intervals. You light along the knobs, it appears, and then you can cut your pie so that every helping is exactly equal to every other helping.

The standardized size of pie, to be expected if this Indiana man's pie plate becomes the standard pie plate of America—as it very likely will—will be a standard of the New York Sun.
If this can happen, it says, then the great institution, the American Pie, will sink to the level of the standardized pie plate.

The Hoosier's pie plate means another invasion of freedom of choice at table, a fresh sort of pie plate, and the New York Sun is very mad at it. The new invention is a pie plate
"with knobs on the flange," arranged at equal intervals. You light along the knobs, it appears, and then you can cut your pie so that every helping is exactly equal to every other helping.

But this indignation, you feel, while you may have every sympathy with it on the side of freedom of choice, is not constructive. It is possible to believe, remembering the chronicles of ancient times, that there were mothers, one arbiters and dispensers of pie portions among a numerous and eager brood of children, and that a mechanical aid to equity, as between those young ones who had such a strong sense of justice.

How the mothers would have laughed at that quaint idea of the Sun's, which seems to be that you should serve pie as libitum, "in accordance with the whims and fancies of the children." But, alas, perhaps there are no longer such mothers, such families, or such pies as those mothers used to make.—Vancouver Province.

PICKING PROGRAMS FROM ALL HISTORY

Your Health

"By DR. FRANK MCCOY
If it were not for the disorders affecting women, many doctors would have to look for some other way of making a living. These disorders are the cause of much nervousness, tiredness, and weakness; however, they are usually preventable. There is no reason why women should suffer from disorders affecting the lower back, headache, irritability, or an inability to stand for very long. Most of these symptoms arise from wrong care and insufficient knowledge.

The effect of such troubles is not only to interfere with health, but also to interfere with happiness because of premature aging. Too often such disorders are endured without being understood and without any treatment being taken to correct what is wrong. It is not feasible to take a chance of losing health and youth when such ailments are often readily overcome.

Most women look forward with anxiety to the period between forty and fifty. This is a needless fear if one is willing to take the trouble to find out the best dietetic and hygienic methods to follow for preserving health and vigor. Many times it is entirely possible to lessen the headache, the pronounced hot flashes, and the irritability which commonly mark the beginning of what should develop into the best time of life. Without doubt, the following for preserving health and vigor is a sensible regimen of living their effect may be greatly minimized.

I have known many women of forty and fifty who learned to take care of themselves and who were charming, attractive, vigorous and full of life. I believe the mental attitude plays a most important part in retaining youthfulness throughout life. One should learn to look forward with interest and optimism. It is a time-taking looking backward with regret. From middle age onward may be made the richest part of life.

If the women who feel themselves begin to age would give their bodies a thorough housecleaning and develop a vigorous physical culture and mental training, they would find a new attitude, they could often start life all over again with a renewed interest and with the added pleasure of being able to do more things which have ripened them during the early years.

The circulation should be speeded up by the re-introduction of exercise, and the diet should be made to contain plenty of water and a diet rich in minerals and vitamins. A reasonable amount of protein may be taken, although generally advisable to get down on the starches and sugars, particularly if the habit has been formed of using those foods to excess. A good diet is also important.

The adoption of a sensible regimen of this kind would do a great deal to improve the general health and would make any period of life more enjoyable. However, when there are present any serious symptoms of disease, I suggest that the patient be examined to find out the cause, and that suitable treatment be undertaken. In fact, I would believe it would be a good policy if every woman passing the age of thirty would have a thorough physical examination. If she would only do so and be well examined soon after the fortieth birthday, any disease would be found early and the body could be found. Early discovery of abnormal states and early treatment would prevent many of the serious diseases of old age.

Mussolini Assumes Fifth Italian Cabinet in Rome

FARMS, ARMY POWER WILL BE INCREASED

Former Leader in Ethiopian Campaign Sent to University Post

ROME, Nov. 22.—Premier Mussolini's resignation of the Italian government announced yesterday, is intended to strengthen Italy's agrarian and military power, but also to increase the power of the Italian army, according to the Italian press.

Mussolini appointed the Duke of Aosta, cousin of King Vittorio Emanuele, as viceroy of Ethiopia in succession to Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, who had been dismissed for failing himself and raising the department of exchange and currency to full cabinet rank.

MADE MINISTER
Alessandro Leasora, former colonel, became professor of colonial politics at the University of Rome. He also held the post of secretary for exchange and currency, was elected to the rank of a minister.

Gaeta wrote that:
"An empire of the people will be constituted by the means of Italy's transferred from Europe to Africa. Colonization will be merely carried out by private initiative, but also through the economic community enterprises. Agricultural and industrial colonies will increase the quantities and varieties of production."

Muscatelli of Italian overseas territories will hasten military and defence organization from the Mediterranean to the Red sea, the Indian ocean and to the centre of the African continent.

"They also will re-establish the empire of Rome, the empire of the new power of imperial Italy and other old imperial powers."

The Italian assumption of the colonial ministry gave Leasora a fifth of the cabinet. He also holds the war, aviation, marine and interior portfolios.

Leasora's removal from the cabinet was predicted last March when he was dismissed as minister Emilio de Bono, Italian war veteran.

Designation of General Attilio Teruzzi, former Fascist militia chief, as colonial viceroy, further virtually placed colonial affairs in Italian hands.

FROM SPAIN

Teruzzi, who commanded the "First of February" division during the Italian campaign in Spain, returned on leave from Spain for a short time.

Creation of a full-fledged ministry for exchange and currency, together with reinforcement of the "corporate" ministry, are measures with every increasing importance placed on the bid for economic self-sufficiency.

PEG ELECTRIC WORKERS VOTE STRIKE POWERS

WINNIPEG, Nov. 22.—Nine hundred Winnipeg Electric Company employees yesterday voted to authorize strike action if the company refuses to implement the majority report of a federal conciliation board which last summer recommended complete restoration of 1935 wage schedules over a three-year period.

Executive of the street railway board, which the board was empowered to act the date for the vote, said the board had refused to accept the company's alternative proposal of a five per cent restoration of wages retroactive to May 1, 1937.

The board would effect approximately 1,200 men in various departments.

Another Freighter Will Be Inspected
GIBRALTAR, Nov. 22.—The British freighter Euphorbia, 12 days out of the Russian port of Nicolaïf, was brought to Gibraltar yesterday by the destroyer Hasty for an inspection of the British act of parliament prohibiting British ships from carrying munitions.

The freighter was stopped in the Strait of Gibraltar and boarded by naval officers under the power of the 1918 act. The ship is owned by the flag line.

Air Insurance Rates Are Slashed
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A 50 to 75 per cent decrease in life insurance rates for air passengers was announced today by the Air Transport Association, the Associated Aviation Underwriters, and the National Air Transport Association.

The new rates will become effective next Jan. 1.

Generally, air passengers will be charged five cents per $1,000 of travel for the first four hours of travel.

Two Killed, 53 Hurt In Railway Wreck
BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Nov. 22.—A Norfolk & Western passenger train, plowing through a blinding snowstorm, crashed into a trestle west of Bluefield Saturday, injuring 53 and killing two.

German, British Capital In Spain, Paper Urges

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The financial editor of the Daily Herald, London, urged today that certain British financial interests and German capitalists are working together in the Spanish civil war.

As a result, he declared, the Duke of Alba, General Franco's financial representative in Spain, is gaining increasing importance in British financial circles.

"France is in the rear hand setting the men of the militia to Italy and Germany at the expense of Great Britain and France," the editor wrote, "and on the other hand trying to mollify British capitalists by forcing Spanish workers to work longer hours for lower wages."

"Meanwhile," the Herald wrote, "a financial group between British and German interests is working to intensify British financial interests in London financial circles."

German financiers, the financial editor said, had formed a number of new mining companies in Spain, such as Carlsberg and Roca in San Antonio, for the exploitation of silver mines.

Chinese "Suicide Squads" In Last Stand While Chapei Burns To Ground

"Do or Die" Their Motto

TWO HUNDRED MILES OF MEN SEEK SHANGHAI

Huge Wall Of Japanese Troops Advances In West

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—A 200-mile wall of Japanese troops advanced toward the second Chinese defense line west of Shanghai today. Three columns of the Chinese troops in a driving rain struck from three points to push Chinese forces farther back toward Nanjing.

On a line stretching from Hangchow Bay north to Kiangning on the Yangtze river, the Japanese onslaught was supported by squadrons of bombing planes and artillery batteries hammering toward their objectives, Kiangning and Wusheng.

Directly south of Lake Taihu a third column stormed Hsiao Tung, near the south end of the battlefield. Japanese naval vessels bombarded Lungchow in the Yangtze in an attack believed to present a determined attempt to seize the province.

Three columns of the Chinese army so that the Japanese fleet could stream up the river to Nanjing and other cities.

Outfanked, the Chinese main force, withdrawn from the Shanghai front, and the lack of covering troops, saw the machine gunners who held the shell hole against Japanese barricaded in the building opposite.

Smoke clouds swirl into the sky from the burning ruins of Chapei, sinister token of Japanese success in routing the defenders of Shanghai from the native quarter and bringing the metropolis within their grasp. But the inspired rear-guard fighting of the Chinese suicide battalions so held up the advance so the Chinese army was able to escape the trap and retreat to the "Hudensberg" line.

Shanghai's Alamo

Because of the valiant stand made in its confines, the warehouse above came to be known as Shanghai's "Alamo." A girl patriot ran the gamut of Japanese forces to carry a flag to its 400 defenders, so they could keep Chinese colors flying on the roof.

OSTO RANGERS TO STEAK TO SIX GAMES IN ROW

Bruin's Kid Line Sensational Stars In Week-End Wins

Schmidt, Bauer, Dumart Feature In Both Goals As Bruins Whip Hawks 2-1; Boston Beats Toronto Also

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The undefeated Boston Bruins stretched their run of National Hockey League wins to six games last night by beating Chicago Black Hawks 2-1 in a five-point lead over New York Rangers at the top of the loop's American division.

A near capacity crowd of 18,800 saw the Bruins, with their young second line of Bobby Bauer, Milt Schmidt and Patsy Dumart playing unusually, twice in the second period and then held a fortress Chicago offense in check.

CLUB TEAM WORK
Schmidt banged home the first goal, with Bauer and Dumart assisting, with a double pass. Less than two minutes later, Dumart took a pass from Schmidt, outstruck defenseman Earl Egan and beat goalie Mike Karakas cleanly. Late in the period Glenn Davidson saved the Bruins from a tie.

Bruins Bounce Leafs Into 3-2 Defeat As Younger Stars Shine In Spotlight.

TORONTO, Nov. 22.—Boston Bruins ran their National Hockey League winning streak to five straight before their Saturday night by defeating Toronto Maple Leafs 3-2 on a pair of late goals within three minutes of the second period. It was Toronto's first tie in six starts.

Backed by the steady goalkeeping of Tim Thompson, Bruins showed the toughness and brains of the young season and brilliant passing attack starring the line of Charlie Spivey, Milt Schmidt and Charlie Conacher.

That line scored two goals, Sunde sinking the winner after seven minutes of the second period in a brilliant play with Cowley and Gifford. Goals from the first period, aided by Sunde to offset Harvey Jackson's goal.

Boston's new "baby" line, Milt Schmidt, Patsy Dumart and Bobby Bauer all had a hand in the other Bruins goal. Schmidt scored the first, while Dumart and Bauer assisted.

Toronto's Leafs Drop Detroit Wins To Take 5-0 Triumph In Birds' Camp

DETROIT, Nov. 22.—Toronto's high-scoring Maple Leafs, handed the surprising Detroit Red Wings their worst defeat of the National Hockey League season last night, blanking last year's champions 5-0 before 12,000 spectators.

The Leafs scored first on 8:51 Apple goal, just before the first period ended and scored three more goals in the second to turn the game into a rout. Their final goal was poked into the net by the Detroit goalie, who had backed it past the goal mouth. Bill Thomas got credit for the score.

So even was the Toronto defense that although Jack Adams, Detroit manager, used five forwards throughout, the Leafs were short-handed.

Maroons Go Goalless Again As Gotham Rangers Skate To 3-0 Win On Saturday

MONTREAL, Nov. 22.—The goal famine that has plagued the Canadiens for the past two seasons was again the abiding when New York Rangers scored a 3-0 victory over King Clancy's red shirt in a National Hockey League game Saturday night.

Second period action was led by Clancy and Clint Smith followed a dull opening 20 minutes that had the 1,000 spectators clapping for action.

Maroon's last-period drive went astray on Rangers' sticks or did it, and the New Yorkers clinched the lone when Neil Colville scored on a breakaway.

Maroon's offense looked weak throughout the game as passed men for Montrealers did not mean for New Yorkers' sticks or did it, and the New Yorkers clinched the lone when Neil Colville scored on a breakaway.

Maroons Snap Out of Losing Streak To Take 3-1 Tie With N.Y. Rangers

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Snapping out of their three-game losing streak, the Montreal Maroons tied New York Rangers 3-1 last night in overtime, though the result of the game left them in the cellar of the National Hockey League's Canadian section.

The split in points left Maroons within one point of the two teams tied for second place in the Montreal division. The Maroons' last-period drive went astray on Rangers' sticks or did it, and the New Yorkers clinched the lone when Neil Colville scored on a breakaway.

RANGERS ONLY CLUB TO KEEP CLEAN SLATE

GLASGOW, Nov. 22.—Glasgow Rangers, Scotland's most colorful and dangerous club, yesterday was the only team to keep a clean slate in the Scottish League Cup.

The night Blues, whose club rooms bulge with trophies gained on the field, have their for pulling games "out of the fire." In 18 matches to date, they have won nine and the remaining seven ended in deadlocks. In many of these encounters they came from behind to win the points.

WARRIOR WOMEN
Despite this streak they are trailing Motherwell in the championship race. They can claim no advantage, however. The Fir Parkers have a one-point lead but have played two games more than Rangers.

A portion of the credit may go to Captain George Jenkins, substitute goalkeeper from Motherwell, helped Rangers in their 5-1 victory over Motherwell. Jenkins, playing with Rosemount and three or four others, has been outstanding in the Scottish team. He is a three-year member of the Glasgow roster, and has been a star in a number of international matches.

Leading manager of the current Glasgow team, Black of Motherwell, has scored 18. Walls of Cowie, who has scored 12, and Bain, who has scored 10, are also in the top second division scoring list with 11 each.

THIRD DIVISION

ARSENAL CLUB REGAINS FORM TO WIN 3-0

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Arsenal supporters are celebrating the famous London soccer club's return to match-winning form. In the feature match on the English football card Saturday, the Gunners outplayed their old rival, Charlton Athletic, capturing maximum points in league warfare for the first time since Oct. 3 with a 3-0 decision.

The victory coincided with the return of Ted Drake, Arsenal's international center-forward, who has been out of the game for several weeks through a leg injury.

CITY IS BEATEN
Saturday's play saw the downfall of Coventry City, England's only unbeaten club. The Midlands team, which had won 10 of its 11 games, was defeated 2-1 by Arsenal.

Another surprise result came out of Saturday's round of games. Arbroath won the match with Dundee, the season's delighted home-leaves, and Dundee beat Dundee United, the powerful Celtic eleven, Hearts, a surprise result.

BEFORE a large crowd Saturday night at the Arena, the B. Edmondson Lions Club wound up its charity carnival with the crowning of Miss "Pinkie" Marshall (Civic Federation) as queen.
